An Important Arrest.

At the preliminary examination of Thomas Hoden, before Esq. Kaucker had week, the following facts were deeloped. That a C. B. & Q. car was roken into on the night of February st, 1802, and a large amount of clothing, als and shoes were taken out. The evel nee of Conductor Longuest ews that he had orders, on his arrival at Napier, to take that particular car on track a half mile west of the railroad

A large quantity of other goods were also found in the house which fact did not have anything to do with this case, Mr. Heck, agent of the company, testied that the car, in question, arrived at Napier, February 1st, 1892, in good order. He next saw it on the following morning.

It had been broken open and boxes were broken into and some of the goods scatered over the floor.
The evidence introduced by the deuse was mainly to show that the goods found were not in possession of Thomas Hoden, but that his mother, Sarah Hoden, was the head of the family. But he presecution brought in Dr. J. L. Minton, who testified that he was the owner of the place on which the Hodens lived, and tha homas Hoden was his

This concluded the testimony and the ustice held Hoder in the sum of $1000 for his appearance at the next August term of our circuit court to answer to the charge of burglary and larceny, and in default of bail Hodes was remanded

On the 19th inst, Thomas Hoden was brought before Esq. Kancher on snoth-er charge of burgiary and larceny, but before an investigation could be had the defendant took a change of venue and he case was sent to Ecq. Wilkinson at Forest City. This charge is for the burgiarizing of the house of Richard Gillett, near Corning. The things Hoden is charged with taking are a gold watch, suit of clothes, a revolver, violin and a suit of clothes, a revolver, violin and several other things. The goods were found in his possession. On the same day Ezra Martin, a boy 13 years of age, was brought before Esq. Kaucher, charged with being an accessory to the burglarizing of another car of the C. B. & Q. company at Napier. He waved an examination and grays head, for his anyears. nation and gave bond for his appear-nce at the next term of the circuit ourt. The confederates of the boy are and to be John P.
